v.	)	ORDER
	)	(Written Opinion)
Sargent H.L. Wright,	)
	)
Defendant.	)
	)

This matter comes before the Court to review the magistrate's Report and Recommendation pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Rule 73.02(B)(2)(d), D.S.C., filed on June 8, 2009. The magistrate now recommends that this Court dismiss the plaintiff's complaint for failure to comply with Court Order. For the reasons stated herein, this Court adopts the magistrate's recommendation.

Procedural History

On January 27, 2009, the plaintiff filed the instant suit for a violation of his constitutional rights. On May 27, 2009, the magistrate issued an order stating that dispositive motions were to be filed within twenty days. The copy mailed to the defendant was returned as undeliverable. The plaintiff failed to update his address with the Clerk of Court. Therefore, the magistrate recommends dismissing this suit pursuant to Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for failure to prosecute and failure to comply with orders of the Court. A copy of the Report was mailed to the plaintiff's last known address. The Report was returned as undeliverable. Therefore, plaintiff did not respond.

Standard of Review

Plaintiff brings this claim pro se. This Court is required to construe pro se pleadings liberally. Such pleadings are held to a less stringent standard than those drafted by attorneys. See Gordon v. Leeke, 574 F.2d 1147, 1151 (4th Cir. 1978). This Court is charged with liberally construing a pleading filed by a pro se litigant to allow for the development of a potentially meritorious claim. See Boag v. MacDougall, 454 U.S. 364, 365 (1982).

The magistrate makes only a recommendation to this Court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight, and responsibility for making a final determination remains with this Court. Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261, 270-71 (1976). This Court is charged with making a de novo determination of those portions of the Report and Recommendation to which specific objection is made, and this Court may "accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). This Court may also "receive further evidence or recommit the matter to the magistrate with instructions." Id. In the absence of specific objections to the Report and Recommendation, this Court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198 (4th Cir. 1983). Plaintiff did not file any objections.

Conclusion

After a review of the magistrate's Report and Recommendation, applicable case law, and the record, this Court finds that the magistrate applied sound legal principles to the facts of this case. Therefore, this Court adopts the Report and Recommendation in its entirety.

IT IS THEREFORE SO ORDERED THAT the plaintiff's complaint be dismissed with prejudice in accordance with Rule 41(b), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
